Unfortunately, the quoted comment does not convey the idea that any such study is under way, nor is there any specific proposal for innovative or other action to meet the problem. Since the problem is worldwide in scope, the FBI's domestic counterintelligence responsibilities should be performed in complete cooperation with the CIA, and the CIA should take part in any study.

ACTION: I suggest that you seek the President's approval of a letter from you to Director Hoover (TAB A) asking that he submit, in consultation with the Director of Central Intelligence, a study and recommendations along the lines alluded to in the last paragraph of the FBI report.
